Welcome

JANUARY features new programs to start off the new year. A partnership with Liberty Mobility Now will help community members get to medical appointments and errands. Peer-to-peer support groups will also launch this year thanks to generous donations on Telluride Gives Day. If you missed the deadline to enroll in health insurance for 2018, it’s not too late to get covered! Learn what steps to take. Happy New Year!

Ticket to Ride

Partnership with Liberty Mobility Now

Southwest Colorado residents are gaining a new transportation option this month, as Liberty Mobility Now, Inc. (Liberty) launches its ride-hailing services in Montrose, San Miguel and Ouray Counties.

The launch is made possible through a partnership between Liberty, Tri-County Health Network (TCHNetwork), the Telluride Foundation and Rocky Mountain Health Plans. TCHNetwork will be providing subsidized Liberty rides to help families and individuals in need access their medical appointments and related services. Liberty drivers will be TCHNetwork volunteers in lieu of independent contractors, earning 60 cents a mile with a passenger.

Known as the nation’s first rural and small urban Mobility as a Service provider, Liberty operates a ride-hailing platform not unlike Uber or Lyft. Passengers can hail rides using a free app, but the company also operates a toll-free call center to serve individuals with no smartphone access. Rides can be scheduled on-demand or up to three days in advance.

TCHNetwork’s Interactive Behavioral Health Resource Guide launched at the end of last month! Individuals can search for the type of behavioral health services they need, along with their location, to find the services nearest to them. To access the resource guide, go to: tchnetworkdirectory.org

Colorado is different!

If you missed the deadline to enroll in health insurance for 2018 on December 15th, you can still enroll until January 12th for coverage beginning February 1, 2018.

The ride-hailing service—which costs a dollar per mile with a $1.10 booking fee—will be available to the general public for any type of transportation need, including shopping, late night rides, tourism and airport trips. Through TCHNetwork, some will qualify for transportation to medical and related appointments on a sliding scale fee.

“Whenever we launch in a new area, we look for partnerships that can help us serve the community and eliminate transportation barriers for people in need,” said Erich Lange, Liberty’s Southwest Colorado Area Manager. “We are honored to be working with Tri-County Health Network to provide low-cost transportation for those who need help getting to services that promote health.”

Lange said Liberty will begin providing trips in mid-December, and is currently seeking additional drivers. In this case, drivers will sign up as TCHNetwork volunteers and receive a reimbursement of .60 cents per mile, while using their own vehicles and setting their own schedules.

“This is a unique partnership where Liberty will recruit its drivers through Tri-County Health Network,” Lange said. “And we hope to find drivers who not only want to earn extra income, but who have the desire to improve the lives of people in their community. Of course, we sweetened the deal a little. On top of .60 cents per mile, the first 30 drivers to give 10 rides will earn a $100 bonus.” To sign up call Erich at 970-919-0229 or visit tchnetwork/liberty.

Rasa Kaunelis, from Tri-County Health Network, shared her excitement over the launch of Liberty services in the region.

“Tri-County Health Network had its most successful Telluride Gives Day to date on December 14, 2017! Thanks to the 50+ generous donations from community members, businesses, and organizations, TCHNetwork was able to raise $4,975 on Telluride Gives Day. These funds will be used to create peer-to-peer support groups to support individuals suffering from a mental illness, as well as family members and friends playing a supporting role in their lives.

Broccoli Soup

For more healthy, affordable, delicious and easy recipes, see: https://cookingmatters.org/recipes

Instructions

1. Rinse and peel onion, potato and carrot. Rinse broccoli and celery. Peel garlic.
3. Grate cheese.
4. In a large pot over medium-high heat, heat oil. Add celery and onion. Cook until soft and lightly golden brown, about 6-8 minutes. Add garlic and stir. Cook about 30 seconds more.
5. Add potato, carrot, broccoli stems, bay leaf, milk, and broth to pot. Bring to a boil. Reduce heat and simmer until veggies are soft, about 15 minutes. Add broccoli florets in the last 10 minutes.
6. Remove and discard bay leaf. In a blender, puree about half the soup. Return blended soup to pot.
7. Add cheese, salt and pepper. Simmer to melt cheese, 2-3 minutes.

• Fill blender only half full and blend in batches, if needed.
• If you do not have a blender, gently use a potato masher to blend hot soup.

Serving Size

Serves 8, 1 1/2 cups per serving

Ingredients

• 1 large onion
• 1 large potato
• 1 medium carrot
• 2 large broccoli crowns
• 1 medium stalk celery
• 1 clove garlic
• 1 1/2 teaspoons canola oil
• 1 whole bay leaf
• 1 cup low-fat milk
• 2 (14 1/2-ounce) cans low-sodium chicken broth
• 1 ounce low-fat cheddar cheese
• 3/4 teaspoon salt
• 1/4 teaspoon ground black pepper

Materials

• Box grater
• Can opener
• Cutting board
• Large pot
• Measuring cups
• Measuring spoons
• Sharp knife
• Vegetable peeler
• Special Material: Blender

Chef’s Notes

• Try cauliflower instead of broccoli.
• Add a dash of cayenne pepper or paprika for heat.
• Keep pot uncovered when cooking green veggies like broccoli. This will help keep the color.

Colorado is Different!
It’s not too late to enroll in health insurance for 2018

The start of a new year means new beginnings, including a new health coverage year! Your health and that of your loved ones matters, and adequate health insurance to help you manage your health is an important tool to have.

If you missed the December 15, 2017 deadline to enroll in health insurance for 2018, don’t stress just yet. Luckily for you, Colorado is different from most of the country (in more ways than you think!) and wants to get as many Coloradans protected as possible. For this reason, Colorado has an extended enrollment period, which provides those Coloradans that haven’t enrolled in health insurance for 2018 with more time to do so.

While enrolling by December 15 would have given you health coverage beginning January 1, it’s still possible to get coverage for 2018. If you enroll by January 12th, you will receive health coverage beginning February 1.

Failing to enroll by January 12th means that you will not be able to purchase health insurance for 2018 unless a Qualifying Life Change Event occurs, such as losing coverage through your job, getting married or having a baby. Sorry, but getting a new puppy doesn’t count!

On average, a 3-day hospital stay without health insurance costs $30,000 and a broken leg $7,500! Since you never really know when a medical emergency may occur, protect the health and financial wellbeing of your family by purchasing health insurance for 2018.

It’s important to note that not enrolling in health insurance will result in a penalty. Despite the fact that the future of the Affordable Care Act is being debated, all citizens must have health insurance or face the penalty. This penalty can either be $695 per person, or 2.5% of your household income - whichever is greater. This is no small fee, so make sure to enroll in health insurance by January 12th!

If the cost of health insurance is keeping you from enrolling, know that there is financial assistance available to help lower your health insurance costs. Even if you make $45,000 a year, or $98,000 for a family of four, you can receive financial help.

As rumor has it, the cost of premiums is going up for 2018, but have no fear, because financial help is increasing right along with it! According to Connect for Health Colorado, Colorado’s health insurance marketplace, Colorado households will receive an average of $369 a month to lower the cost of health insurance.

To get a quick estimate of the financial assistance you could qualify for based on your household size and income, check out: Planfinder.ConnectforHealthCO.com.

Once you determine the amount of financial assistance you may qualify for, it’s time to enroll!

Tri-County Health Network understands that the enrollment process for health insurance can be rather complicated, which is why we have Health Coverage Guides (HCGs) to help you through the entire process. Our HCGs will help you navigate the state insurance marketplace, Connect for Health Colorado, and assist you in the enrollment process. HCGs can also assist with Medicaid and SNAP applications.

To receive free enrollment assistance or to answer any questions you may have regarding health insurance, contact your local health coverage guide:
